

BRUICHLADDICH

Links - Carnoustie

Food from Britain - 2003 Drinks Exporter of the Year
Distillery Of The Year 2001 & 2003 – Malt Advocate

Bruichladdich Links is a series of limited edition bottlings chosen by Master Distiller, Jim McEwan, that associates this superb Single Malt whisky with the art of Graeme W. Baxter, the world's leading Golf Artist. Carnoustie is the 7th release in the 700/750ml series celebrating Scotland's two principle passions: Golf and Whisky.

Bruichladdich is the most authentic Islay single malt as it is the only Islay malt to be bottled on Islay using the legendary Islay spring water to reduce from cask strength to bottling strength.

Taste Descriptors : Red and black cherry, plum, cranberry, ginger, spices and a hint of dates.

- ◉ 7th in the acclaimed Links 700/750ml bottle series.
- ◉ Limited worldwide release of 12,000 numbered bottles.
- ◉ Matured first for 14 years in Bourbon casks then in Chateau Haut-Brion French red wine casks in Bruichladdich's ACE programme.
- ◉ Chateau Haut-Brion is one of the four Bordeaux First Growth from the original 1855 Bordeaux quality classification list.
- ◉ One of the most expensive and prestigious wines in France.
- ◉ The wine has a complex bouquet of ripe, rich fruit, mineral and earthy scents giving it a balance of power, elegance and richness.
- ◉ Casks selected by acclaimed Master Distiller, Jim McEwan.
- ◉ Unique product in the drinks industry.
- ◉ Collectable.
- ◉ Non chill filtered.
- ◉ Colouring free.
- ◉ Reproduction of Graeme W. Baxter's panoramic painting of the 15th hole at Carnoustie golf course.

